Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not teach or fairly suggest presenting a test item to a respondent in a second panel on a second display device, the second display device having a second resolution different from a first resolution, the second panel including substantially the same number of pixels in a first direction as a first panel and including substantially the same number of pixels in a second direction as the first panel, wherein substantially the same amount of scrolling is required to view a question portion in the panel window on a first display device and on the second display device despite the different resolutions of the first and second display devices (Claim 1 and similar language in independent Claims 11-12, 14, and 22).

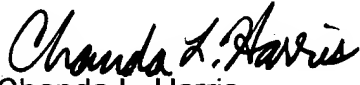

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Chanda L. Harris whose telephone number is 571-272-4448. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 6:30am-4:00pm.
